

ROCKY MOUNTAIN SHOW JUMPING PRIVATE PHOTOGRAPHER POLICY

All private photographers wishing to sell or give their photos taken at Rocky Mountain Show Jumping (RMSJ) to exhibitors or competitors must apply for Private Photographer Credentials.

This policy only applies to professional photographers and does not prevent spectators from using their cameras for personal family members. Spectators must also abide by the rules and regulations highlighted in the below policy to ensure the safety of all exhibitors and vendors/photographers.

RMSJ Official Photographer:

- S.Capturing the Moment Photography and Team.

Conditions:

- Individual Private Photographer Credentials can be purchased for $500.00. A client list (maximum seven horses) and payment must be received by 5pm on the Monday of each tournament week in order to gain approval.
- Approved credentials are non-transferable and may not be swapped between representatives.
- Approved photographers may not solicit additional clients beyond the list submitted at time of approval.
- Photographers must provide proof of insurance to be eligible for approval.

Photos taken of competitors not on the submitted client list may not be posted to the photographers Social Media accounts or website during the tournament, or after completion of the tournament. Photographers may not sell, gift, or otherwise give away these photos to competitors.

Rules of Conduct:

- Photographers may not enter any competition or warm-up ring under any circumstances. This includes the area between the Jasper and Grand Prix Rings, and between the Hunter Rings.
- On-site vendor space is not available to private photographers and public Points of Sale online are prohibited. Business is to be conducted directly between the photographer and their client.
- The use of remote camera equipment is prohibited.
- Photographers must wear their provided credential lanyard at all times while on RMSJ property.
- Photographers may not shadow the Official Photography team members, and should establish their own locations as to not interfere with the work the Official Photography team has been contracted to do by Rocky Mountain Show Jumping.

RMSJ Management reserves the right to revoke Approved Credentials at any time. Photographers found to be violating the above conditions and rules may be removed from approval, and may be denied the ability to obtain credentials in the future.
